PRESENTERS

DANNY ABRAMOWICZ is a former NFL all pro wide receiver and coach and co-hosts EWTN's "Crossing the Goal." Danny admits that he is a "former party boy whose life once revolved around his ego and booze." Danny is an author and much sought after speaker at men's conferences. He now works with Danny Abramowicz Ministry, a national outreach to Catholic men.

PETER HERBECK is the Vice President and Director of Missions for Renewal Ministries. He is a co-host on The Choices We Face, a member of the new television program Crossing the Goal, the author of several books, and a Board Member of the National Fellowship of Catholic Men.

FR. MICHAEL O'LOUGHLIN was ordained a priest in 2005 for the Byzantine Catholic Eparchy of the Holy Protection of Mary in Phoenix. He serves as Assistant Director of Vocations for his eparchy and Assistant Director of the eparchial Alive in Christ boy's camp. Father supplements his service to his parish by ministering in prisons, hospitals and with the homeless. He currently serves as pastor of Holy Protection Church in Denver, Colorado.

PACO GAVRILIDES currently works in the Office of Evangelization for the Archdiocese of Detroit where, among other activities, he helped develop the successful annual Men's Conference for the Archdiocese. Though he is a Roman Catholic, Paco and his family often attend Sacred Heart Byzantine Catholic Church in Livonia, Michigan.
